Ethan Bader Earns All-America Honors

Posted: May 28, 2014

SAVANNAH, Ga. - Armstrong Atlantic State University senior pitcher Ethan Bader has been named to the American Baseball Coaches' Association (ABCA) Division II All-American third team, announced today by the organization.

Bader was also named as an honorable mention All-American by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers' Association (NCBWA), making him the first Armstrong pitcher to earn multiple All-America honors in one season since Matt Nalutka in 2005.

The Jacksonville, Fla., native finished his Armstrong baseball career by being named the PBC's Pitcher of the Year, going 11-1 with a 3.45 ERA and leading the league in strikeouts (121). During the season, Bader became the career leader in both wins (31) and strikeouts (293) for Armstrong and he finishes his career ranked fifth in Peach Belt Conference history in wins and seventh in total strikeouts. He was also a four-time PBC Pitcher of the Week honoree this season.

Bader was the only pitcher from the Peach Belt Conference to earn ABCA All-American honors in 2014.
